Werner's Dictionary of Synonyms & Antonyms,
Mythology and Familiar Phrases.

A book that should be in the vest pocket of every person, because it tells you the right word to use. No two words in the English Language have exactly the same significance. To express the precise meaning that one intends to convey a dictionary of Synonyms is needed to avoid repetition. The strongest figure of speech is antithesis. In this dictionary the appended Antonyms will, therefore, be found extremely valuable. Contains many other features such as Mythology, Familiar Allusions and Foreign Phrases. Prof. Lolette's Memory System, "The Art of Never Forgetting," etc., etc. This wonderful little book bound in a new cloth binding and sent postpaid for $0.25. Full leather, gilt edge, $0.40, postpaid. Order at once. Send for our large book catalogue, free. Address all orders to THE WERNER COMPANY, Publishers and Manufacturers, AKRON, OHIO.

COYTEE.

The above named place is of Indian origin and is quite an old settlement, being surrounded by quite a prosperous farming community, and the name itself being composed of a store, post office, school house and church close by. The store and postoffice situated on the banks of the Little Tennessee river, makes it a very enviable position and especially when it is known that it is a fine boat landing. The place has many advantages worthy of mention, but will not go into details owing to want of space, but will say come and see for "seeing is believing."

The health of our community is exceptionally good, so far as known with the exception of Mr. Andrew Carpenter, who has been quite unwell the past several days with swollen and painful feet supposed to be inflammatory rheumatism.

Prof. W. E. Mills left last week for Texas, his many friends while sorry to have him go wish him much success.

From the visible results it would seem to the most casual observer that Beecher Carpenter is quite an expert in the manipulation of fire arms as a result of his having brought in five numbers of the "Bunny" family Wednesday evening since which the writer has feasted on soup and dumplings.

Mrs. A. Hammonree of Quiet Retreat was the pleasant guest of her sister Mrs. A. Carpenter of this place from Tuesday till Wednesday when she in company with her sister visited Mrs. Edd Greenway and family.

Tine McGill is beautifying as well as enhancing the value of his dwelling by way of erecting a new addition a part of which is two story and in all consists of four rooms.

Mrs. Florence an amiable as well as amicable young lady and daughter of Mr. Tine McGill who has been teaching near Philadelphia, Tenn., is at home to the delight of her many friends. Her school having just recently closed.

Prof. Quim Carpenter, who is teaching a successful school at Bellevue gave a spelling last Friday night which was largely attended and as such things usually are greatly enjoyed, especially was that part as designated by the old but reliable game "Snap."

Misses Nannie Costner and Adria McGee of McKinley visited in our midst last week as the guests of Miss Pet Carpenter and others, and they also attended a social on last Saturday night at the home of Miss Kittie Greenway.

Rev. T. A. West pastor in charge of the M. E. Church of this place conducted Thanksgiving services. After preaching came the social part of the exercises which was participated in by most if not every one present.

We have quite an interesting Epworth League at this place, which we think quite helpful to the young people of our community.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use without a failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by—George & Tedford.

WINE OF CARDUI

FOR ALL WOMEN

NINE-TENTHS of all the pain and sickness from which women suffer is caused by weakness or derangement in the organs of menstruation. Nearly always when a woman is not well these organs are affected. But when they are strong and healthy a woman is very seldom sick.

WINE OF CARDUI

Is nature's provision for the regulation of the menstrual function. It cures all "female troubles." It is equally effective for the girl in her teens, the young wife with domestic and maternal cares, and the woman approaching the period known as the "Change of Life." They all need it. They are all benefitted by it.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THE J. COOPER, Taylor, Miss., says: "My sister suffered from very irregular and painful menstruation and nothing could not relieve her. Wine of Cardui entirely cured her and also helped my mother through the Change of Life."
